A Nation in Turmoil!

Bosnia is a bridge nation between western and eastern Europe. It is bordered by Serbia to the east, Croatia to the north and west, and Montenegro to the southeast. A small portion of it borders the Mediterranean Sea. It has many rivers and mountains.

In recent years, it was in the news, because of war that took place within its borders. Sarajevo, its capital city was under siege from April 5, 1992 to Feb 29, 1996, a total of 3 years, 10 months, 3 weeks and 3 days.

Four entities were involved in the war: Army of Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatian Defence Council, at odds with Army of Republika Srpska, (Bosnia Serb State) and Yugoslav People's Army. After the war, the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia convicted four Serb officials for numerous counts of crimes against humanity committed during the siege. Prior to this, sporadic fighting broke out between the Serbs and government forces all across the territory.

Recently, a Serb Chetnik gathering in Bosnia's Visegrad has raised alarm. I quote: 'A gathering of supporters of the far-right Chetnik paramilitary movement in Bosnia's eastern city of Visegrad, the site of past atrocities by the forces, has raised alarm among residents, as well as local and international officials. .. The Visegrad gathering, which saw uniform-wearing participants singing songs that included lines such as 'there will be hell, the Drina will be bloody, here come the Chetniks from the Serb mountains,' provoked wariness and fear among Bosniak residents who survived some of the worst atrocities committed by Chetniks.'

During the war in Bosnia in the early 1990's, Serb forces identifying with the Chetnik movement killed around 3,000 Bosniak civilians in Visegrad as they claimed the area for a Greater Serbia.

When you sow into this trip, you are sowing into the destiny of a nation and helping bring God's purpose to the earth.

Why are you going?

1. To bring healing to the land and its people.
2. To stand on the land bringing a new sound of worship to negate and override the sound of war.
3. To bring the power of the Covenant of Life in Christ Jesus to a land filled with death.
4. Teaching and training indigenous people to come together in prayer for the healing of their land.
5. To stand in the gap holding back a war from rising up again.
6. Because we are being sent by the Lord to assist this nation in its emergence from past trauma into God's purpose.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, information from your MLS, mortgage rates, and trends in home buying or selling.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to create or maintain name awareness, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events. You can also include information that promotes your special services or real estate niche. This could include new homes, working with first time buyers, or handling resort properties.

You can also research articles on the Web. You can write about a variety of topics. Try to keep your articles short yet informative.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you are finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and publish it to the Web.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on trends in home buying or selling, home improvement information, or mortgage rates.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or predict trends for your customers or clients.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue. For example, you could include an advice column or a "how to" article that focuses on issues such as home improvement. You can also profile new listings or homes you've recently sold.

"To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here."

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip-art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer format is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition of your newsletter, or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about buying or selling a home.

You can also use this space to remind readers to call you when they are thinking about buying or selling a home.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.

Place text here that describes any company policies or disclaimers. For example: "Each office independently owned and operated."
